Sleepless

I've spent my nights looking at the ceiling

I know I say a lot when we meet

But I can't help sharing my feelings

Because I have wounds to treat.

It feels gorgeous to be sleepless

All my life colored black and white

But seeing you in color leaves me speechless

Let's stay here during the night.

Can't you understand?

You're perfect

I know this wasn't planned

I'm bound to you and I won't break it.

You're the sun in a cloudy night

Girl, just hold me tight

In me you left the brand

Like a heart drawn in sand.

Asked you to heal my ears with your voice

Never care less about the external noise

Be the stars in the night

In the darkness you'll be my light.
